NCAE Announces ‘Diamond Anniversary’ for Upcoming 60th Annual Meeting of Members

(Arlington, VA) The National Council of Agricultural Employers (NCAE) announced today the opening of registration for the 60th Annual Meeting which will be held February 13 – 15, 2024, at the Holiday Inn Washington Capitol in Washington, D.C. Each year, NCAE’s members gather in the Nation’s capital along with key leaders in the agricultural employment and labor communities from across the United States and around the world.

“NCAE’s Annual Meeting is a must-attend event for agricultural employers nationwide as it offers an opportunity to interact with the Federal representatives that impact their farm and ranch operations as well as their daily lives,” said Michael Marsh, NCAE’s President and CEO.

Attendees of NCAE’s 60th Annual Meeting will enjoy a special opportunity to celebrate this important anniversary in the organization’s history at the much-anticipated wine reception at the conclusion of the first day. The wine reception will feature delicious hors d’oeuvres and wonderful wines generously donated by Mercer Ranches.

“Sponsorship opportunities are available for this event that reaches attendees nationwide,” said Marsh.
