

September 3, 2024

For Immediate Release

Contact: Michael Marsh, President and CEO
(202) 629-9320

NCAE Opens Registration for 11th Ag Employer Labor Forum

(Arlington, VA) The National Council of Agricultural Employers (NCAE) announced that early bird registration for the premier event for America's agricultural employers, the NCAE Ag Employer Labor Forum, is now open. This year's Forum will take place on December 4-6, 2024, at the beautiful M Resort just outside Las Vegas, Nevada.

NCAE has developed exciting new programming for the 2024 Forum tailored to the needs of and suited for all owners, operators, office managers, personnel managers, service providers, agricultural agents, attorneys and other stakeholders interested in the ag labor industry.

This year's speakers will feature a diverse range of topics and breakout sessions including the economic outlook for US Farm Labor in 2025, hot topics in ag labor safety, must-knows for Farm Labor Contractors, artificial intelligence in agriculture, and much more. Attendees of these stimulating sessions, along with many others throughout the Forum, are eligible to receive continuing education credit from the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM).

"This year's Ag Employer Labor Forum is shaping up to be the biggest and best yet," said Michael Marsh, President and CEO of NCAE. "We are delighted to extend early bird pricing and a discounted room rate in the NCAE room block to our members and members of the broader agricultural community."

Early Bird Registration Rates:

- Member: $455
- Non-Member: $520

1550 Wilson Boulevard, Suite 700
Arlington, VA 22209
202-629-9320

Sponsorship Opportunities:

In addition to registration, NCAE is excited to offer a variety of sponsorship opportunities for organizations looking to support agricultural employers, gain exposure in the agricultural industry, and connect with the hundreds of in-person ag employers, agents, attorneys and others at who will attend this year's Forum.

"Last year," noted Marsh, "NCAE was thrilled to receive record interest in our trade show, resulting in a completely sold-out exhibition space. Do not delay if you wish to be a part of this incredible event which reaches hundreds of attendees and organizational decision-makers."

Interested parties are encouraged to contact Susan Lester, NCAE Manager of Association Services, for sponsorship details.

Ag Employer Labor PAC - Cultivating Agricultural Champions:

The Ag Employer Labor PAC will host a dinner on December 3, 2024, prior to the start of the NCAE Ag Employer Labor Forum. Attendees will enjoy a private, upscale, donors-only dinner in the Wine Cellar at the M Resort accompanied by the wonderful wines from Mercer Ranches, live music, and a special guest speaker who is sure to enthrall.

This event will be held and ticketed separately from the Labor Forum. Attendees of the Forum are encouraged to consider whether they might wish to take part in this exclusive and entertaining evening focused on improving the outlook for ag employers nationwide and cultivating champions for ag labor issues in the Congress. Individuals may indicate their interest in further communication about this event on the Labor Forum registration portal.

The early bird registration period will close on October 11, 2024. NCAE's discounted room block at the M Resort will close on November 18, 2024, or once the room block is full. To secure your spot at the Forum and take advantage of discounted room rates at the M Resort, visit NCAE's Labor Forum registration page today

About NCAE:

NCAE is the national trade association focusing on agricultural labor issues from the employer's viewpoint.

-30-