Jeanne Malitz to Serve as Secretary of NCAE Executive Committee

(Arlington, VA) The National Council of Agricultural Employers (NCAE) is pleased to announce the election of Jeanne Malitz to its Executive Committee, where she will serve in the critical leadership role of Secretary. She brings a deep understanding of the agricultural workforce landscape and a wealth of legal expertise to NCAE's Executive Committee. In her role as Secretary, Malitz will help guide the strategic direction of the NCAE as it continues to advocate on behalf of agricultural employers across the United States.

"We are thrilled to welcome Jeanne to the Executive Committee leadership team," said John Hollay, NCAE's President & CEO. "Her unwavering commitment to the agricultural community and deep knowledge of the intricacies of agricultural workforce issues make her an invaluable asset to NCAE. Jeanne's perspective will be vital as we continue to champion policies that support agricultural employers and ensure a stable, legal workforce for American agriculture."

Joel Anderson, Chairman of the Executive Committee and owner of Anderson Immigration Law, emphasized the strength Malitz adds to the committee's leadership. "Jeanne's stellar reputation in the agricultural workforce community precedes her," Anderson stated. "Having her step into the role of Secretary strengthens our committee's ability to navigate the complex regulatory and operational challenges facing the agricultural community today. We look forward to working closely with her to advance our shared goals."

“I am deeply honored,” said Malitz, “to be elected as the incoming Secretary of the National Council for Agricultural Employers. Over the past two decades, I have been closely involved with NCAE and have seen firsthand the organization’s growth and significant influence on agricultural policy. I look forward to serving alongside President John Hollay and the Executive Committee as we continue advancing NCAE’s mission and national leadership within agriculture.”

Malitz is the principal of MalitzLaw, Inc., a boutique law firm specializing in employment-based immigration matters. MalitzLaw, Inc. has a national presence representing employers on a wide variety of immigration-related matters with an emphasis on permanent labor certification and temporary labor certification for agricultural employers.
